

Joseph Schumaker

FCSI; Founder & President, FoodSpace

2019 Winner for the Foodservice Pioneering Concept, Duality

Joe decided that after over 10 years in retail and sales, that it was time for a change in late 2003. After graduating with honors from the California Culinary Academy, San Francisco in 2005 he started his career in foodservice taking an entry level position in catering at Restaurant O in Campbell, CA. After less than two years, Joe and two colleagues founded Cosmopolitan Catering and in the nearly 10 years since, he has helped steer and grow Cosmo into the premier Catering and Cafeteria operator that it is today. Now armed with almost a decade of business, operations, design and project management experience he is poised at the helm of SCG FoodSpace with offices in San Jose and Idaho. Joe is an expert in foodservice management, food business growth and mentorship. Joe currently resides in Eagle, Idaho with his wife Brandi and two kids, Jacob and Zachary. Joe enjoys spending time with his family, camping, BBQ'ing and playing poker.
